

Nevada Network Against Domestic Violence Resource Center Information Packets

Nevada Network Against Domestic Violence Information Packet presents a variety of information about NNADV, including: our annual report, the latest statewide statistics, a listing of domestic violence programs in Nevada, a copy of the Network News, Resource Center annotated lists, examples of many of our brochures, and order forms for resources. Up to 5 copies are FREE

Dating Violence Information Packet focuses solely on the issue of dating violence in adolescent relationships; and includes: dating violence statistics, the Teen Power and Control Wheels, warning signs of an abusive dating relationship, and a teen safety plan in English & Spanish.

Health Care Information Packet is made for the Health Care Provider to assist in the screening process, this packet includes: clinical guidelines, assessment tips, safety cards, and a button from the Family Violence Prevention Fund.

Battered Immigrant Women Information Packet contains information on: options available to battered immigrant women when attempting to obtain lawful permanent residency under the Violence Against Women Act; dealing with the Immigration & Naturalization Service (INS); sample INS forms; and a listing of local and national organizations providing services to battered immigrant women.

Children and Domestic Violence Information Packet contains information for children from violent homes and their mothers, including statistics; types of abuse experienced by children living in violent homes; information on custody and visitation; safety planning; communicating with children of all ages; and the negative effects on children witnessing domestic violence.

Older Battered Women Information Packet includes: types of abuse, as well as the negative effects of abuse experienced by older battered women; risk factors for abuse in older couples, and ways to spot the abuse; barriers to seeking help which older women may face; and the Family Violence in Later Life wheel.

Domestic Violence & Disability Information Packet includes: types of abuse and how these abuses affect women with disabilities, statistics, risk factors, and negative effects of abuse. Also included is a safety plan made specifically for victims of domestic violence with disabilities, and a modified Power & Control Wheel.

Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual & Transgender (GLBT) Information Packet addresses issues which are unique to abuse in GLBT relationships, including risk factors of abuse, myths and facts regarding GLBT domestic violence, and HIV control as a form of abuse. Also included is a section about similarities and differences between GLBT and heterosexual abuse, the GLBT Power & Control Wheel, and information on obtaining protection orders in Nevada.

Understanding Diversity Information Packet offers advocates an opportunity to explore the complexities of cultural diversity and the role of culture in the lives of battered women. Readers will learn how to improve the accessibility of their services to underserved and/or marginalized communities as well as how to build culturally relevant responses to abuse. ****Available in electronic format******

Stalking Information Packet aims to provide answers to questions advocates and victims have about stalking. It contains information on: the effects of stalking on victims, types of stalkers; stalking patterns and behaviors; cyberstalking, and how technology can be used to stalk; safety plan guidelines; the importance of documentation; and services available to stalking victims in Nevada. ****Available in electronic format******

Native American Victims of Domestic Violence Information Packet explores the root causes of violence against Native American women, specifically domestic violence. It demonstrates that such violence is not a Native American tradition. The packet provides tools for non-Native domestic violence programs on how to better reach Native victims, and how to improve the cultural relevance of their services to Native Americans who have been affected by domestic violence. ****Available in electronic format******
