2013 DOMESTIC VIOLENCE HOMICIDES in NEVADA

In 2013, domestic violence related incidents claimed 18 lives in Nevada, as documented in published news stories in print media. Each incident received varying degree of attention from reporters, ranging from multi-story investigative reporting to simple one-paragraph crime reports. As such, the descriptions below should not be considered an attempt to capture the full complexity of the events. Rather, this list is a commemoration of lives lost to domestic violence.

In order to be included in this list, each homicide was identified as an intimate partner violence related incident; the deaths resulted from violence between adults who were either current or past intimate partners. In 2013, 11 such incidents were reported by print media, claiming the lives of 10 female and 5 male victims. 3 male perpetrators committed suicides after killing or trying to kill their current or former partners.
