

About Jan Evans...

Jan Evans was one of Nevada's most beloved and accomplished legislators. As the volunteer lobbyist for NNADV, Jan Evans worked to pass landmark marriage license fee legislation in 1981 to increase funding for victims of domestic violence in Nevada. During her seven terms in the Assembly, Jan fought to protect this funding and also worked tirelessly as a champion for women's and children's issues, even during her struggle with cancer. To those of us at NNADV who were lucky enough to know her, Jan was a friend, an advocate, and a mentor. Jan Evans died from ovarian cancer on April 24, 2000.

Jan Evans Direct Assistance Fund

To commemorate her compassion, courage, and integrity, NNADV inaugurated the Jan Evans Direct Assistance Fund in 2005. The Fund provides direct emergency financial assistance grants of up to $500 to battered women and their children who are fleeing abusive relationships or attempting to reestablish themselves after leaving such situations.

The Nevada Network Against Domestic Violence (NNADV)...

...is a statewide organization that coordinates quarterly networking meetings, helps provide rural community education, and is active in educating legislators on issues of concern to Nevada families. NNADV also serves as a liaison between domestic violence programs and the state division administering Nevada's Domestic Violence Fund.

NNADV's Purpose...

NNADV's overall purpose is to help Nevada's communities respond creatively and effectively to the needs of victims of domestic violence in Nevada.

HOW IT WORKS

To Apply to the Jan Evans Fund

Nevada-based domestic violence programs can apply for funds on behalf of individual battered women and their children. An applying organization must be a non-profit, tax-exempt organization under section 501(c)(3) of the IRS code and must be a member program of the Nevada Network Against Domestic Violence. Call 775-828-1115 or email Katy Calamusa at katyc@nnadv.org to request an application form.

To Contribute to the Jan Evans Direct Assistance Fund

We need your help to continue providing the Jan Evans Fund's valuable resources to victims of domestic violence. Please consider donating to the Jan Evans Direct Assistance Fund.

All donations to the Jan Evans Fund may be tax-deductible under federal law. No administrative costs are covered by the Jan Evans Fund. 100% of all donations go directly to meet the needs of victims.

"I am sending a follow-up report for the funds to assist a battered woman with her car registration. ...thanks to the Jan Evans Direct Assistance Fund she has been able to remain gainfully employed. She has since moved out of the shelter with her children to a safe location, and reports that she is doing very well. Thank you again for all of your help."

I would like to contribute to the Jan Evans Direct Assistance Fund.
